BREEDING TO IMPERIAL MADHEEN TO BE OFFERED AT AUCTION

This year's items include exquisite art and other one of a kind offerings. Watch for an eblast coming soon with images and additional details, and plan to participate at the live auction on Friday evening, June 10th.

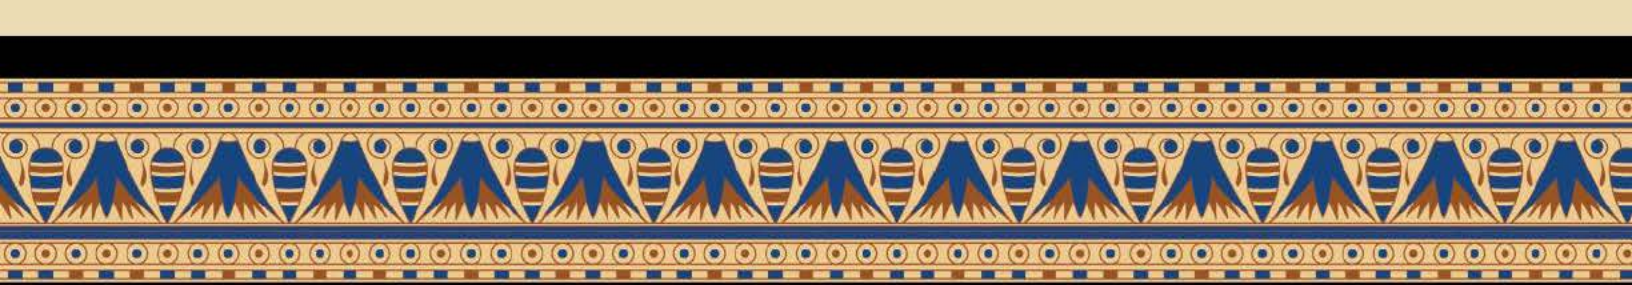

We're proud to announce that a breeding to the legendary stallion IMPERIAL MADHEEN will be auctioned live at the Gala on Friday evening through the generous donation by Omar Sakr of Sakr Arabians, Cairo, Egypt.

Imperial Madheen (Messaoud x Madinah) , arguably one of the great stallions of all times, was bred in Germany by Professor Siegfried Paufler and later imported to the US by Imperial Egyptian Stud . He went on to become the herd sire at Count Zichy Tyssen's Stud in Argentina. In 2001, he finally returned to the land of his ancestors, Egypt, to join his two sons Imperial Madori (x Orianah) and Tallahsman (x Bint Attalah) but as fate would have it he met with an untimely death shortly thereafter.

A statuesque individual, Imperial Madheen, will be remembered as one of the most classic, refined and influential stallions the world has known. His get have established his prepotency as a proven sire, capturing numerous championship titles on four continents notably Paris World Junior Champion Stallion, Imperial Mashhar (x Imperial Jannabah) owned by the King of Morocco, Australian National Champion Stallion, Imperial Madaar (x Ansata Nile Mist) ,owned by Simeon Stud , Egypt's National Junior Champion Stallion (Imperial Madori (x Imperial Orianah) owned by Sakr Arabians Stud

Imperial Madheen's sons have made and continue to leave their indelible mark on the SE industry. Daughters and sons of Imperial Madori and Tallahsman as herd sires at Sakr Arabians Stud have claimed three World Championships (Gelgelah Al Badia, Nabeela Sakr & Adham Sakr) and close to 20 + Egyptian National and International championships between them. Tallahsman, the most renowned living son, is now herd sire at Al Khaled Stud in Saudi Arabia.

Today the only way to include highly sought-after Madheen blood into breeding programs is through his get. However, this exclusive once-in-a-lifetime breeding to Madheen provides this unique opportunity to directly incorporate this valuable blood into your breeding program.

THE PYRAMID SOCIETY BOARD OF TRUSTEES HONORS THE ROGERS FAMILY OF KEHILAN ARABIANS

Nearby the famed Trinity River in Fort Worth, Texas lies the charming farm of Kehilan Arabians owned by the Rogers family. Inspired by a deep love of horses, and with the devoted support of her husband Herb, Ida Jean Rogers and her daughters Nancy Rogers Blankenship and Becky Rogers brought their farm into world prominence. Almost forty years have passed, and Kehilan remains firmly based on their shared vision of "a breathtakingly beautiful, classic and noble horse...that is your friend, your inspiration, and one that delights the senses".

The development of the farm as a family endeavor required years of devotion, passion and perseverance. Dedicated to the art of breeding, and based on line breeding to the revered stallion Sameh, the fourth and fifth generations of the Rogers' planned program are consistently producing the magnificent Arabians they envisioned as their goal. Becky is a skilled horsewoman and farm manager, Nancy oversees the office while Herb, at 89, remains active in management decisions. Aided in sales and client support since 1993 by their close friend Janice Bush, Kehilan bloodstock is found in over 20 countries worldwide.

The Rogers are lifetime members of The Pyramid Society, always giving generously of their time, talents, and financial support. Nancy began serving on the board of directors in 1999, was later elected Vice President and chaired the Egyptian Event through 2008. Becky was elected to the board in 2009, and today serves as Vice President and Chair of both the Competition Committee and the Public Relations Committee. Ida Jean Rogers, who crossed the Rainbow Bridge in 2011, would be proud of Kehilan's breeding, training and showing accomplishments. Emma and her little sister Avery, Nancy's granddaughters, also love horses and Emma is already garnering national acclaim as a rider.

Street art, food culture and a craft-beer scene have exploded here, and while visitors can still honor the historic highlights, Lexington's passion for innovation leads the modern-day charge.'

SOCIETY NEWS

IN MEMORIAM

The Arabian Horse Community recently lost several well-known and influential professionals who will be missed by many. The Pyramid Society wishes their loved ones peace and comfort during this time of loss.

SIGI SILLER

REMEMBERING SIGI...

by Christie Metz

Knowing in my mind that this vibrant, colorful, charismatic person is gone is difficult to grasp. Truly though Sigi lives on in so many, many ways that warms my heart and brings comfort. While Sigi created the Om El breeding program which is unarguably one of the best in the world for Arabian horses, her true apex of breeding is her children, Benni and Janina as well as her step daughter Shannon whom she considered hers too along with Bonnie. She would say this too and did on many occasions. Sigi loved her horses and breeding with an unswerving dedication, but her children were for her, the most important. This love extended to their spouses (Bryon and Kim), their families and anyone else she considered family and most especially her grandchildren, Sophia and Luca. Sigi was a woman of gifted vision in creating horses, and beautiful children with amazing souls. She had a passion for life with the unwavering belief in reaching for her dreams.....always. (a celebration of Sigi's life to be announced.)

ERWIN ESCHER - GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN

From Judith Forbis

"What is life? It is the flash of a firefly in the night. It is the breath of a buffalo in the wintertime. It is the little shadow which runs across the grass and loses itself in the sunset." (Crowfoot (1821-1890) Last words.

It was the sunset of Erwin's life - but who knew it? The man who always wore a smile; who was everywhere with his camera; whose images of beautiful horses delighted everyone far and wide; whose farm was a haven to that which he loved - animals, and his beloved wife, Annette.

The Arabian horse world is grateful for the historical images Erwin has left for us and generations to come. He is a testimony that life is to be lived loving what you do. Now he has moved beyond the sunset. We will miss him. Rest in Peace, Erwin...

ERWIN ESCHER

IRINA FILSINGER

REMEMBERING IRINA FILSINGER

Although the Filsinger Family passionately bred high quality Straight Egyptian horses for over 50 years, Irina was most well known for her exquisite photos; some of the most captivating images in the Arabian show industry. Her talent and dedication to the breed were always evident in her work and she will truly be missed.
